

BPAC Virtual Studio Tours and Interviews with Local Artists

The covid-19 pandemic has been particularly difficult for artists. In order to give local Basalt artists more exposure and recognition for their art, the Basalt Public Arts Commission (BPAC) is commissioning videographers to create short videos and studio tours with local artists that can be shared on social media and on the artists' websites. Selected videographers will work with BPAC and Town Staff to create these short videos.

Name of videographer(s) and all members of team, if applicable (please attach resumes to this form):

Email

Phone

Mailing Address

Links to four completed works demonstrating ability to complete this project

Statement on how videographer(s) would approach this project

Ideas or requests you have regarding Covid-19 safety

Are you willing to add additional content if desired by artist? Yes No

How many artist interviews would you be willing to complete? BPAC is considering funding up to ten videos _____

Any additional information you would like to include with this application

Please send this form and attachments to Watkins Fulk-Gray at watkins.fulkgray@basalt.net or drop off packet at Basalt's Town Hall (101 Midland Avenue, Basalt, CO).

Any questions about the project must be directed to Watkins Fulk-Gray at the email address above or by calling 970-279-8115 before March 25.

BASALT PUBLIC ARTS COMMISSION

B P A C

A CONFLUENCE OF ART AND VITALITY